

Directorate of Computing Quality Policy

Our quality policy is to carry out informatics activities in line with the mission and vision of our university on the basis of universal science, ethical principles and law, based on continuous improvement and innovative, with total quality management understanding adopted by all of our stakeholders.

Our quality policy in this line is based on the following matters:

- The participation of all of our stakeholders in the Quality Assurance System,*
- Improvement of the knowledge, skills and competencies of human resources,*
- Conduct of informatics activities according to national/international requirements and priorities,*
- Establishment of Information Security Management System,*
- Acquisition of ISO/IEC 27001:2013 certification,*
- The creation of Information Security Policies,*
- The employment of qualified IT professionals,*
- Contribution at the high-level to the region and society in the field of informatics activities,*
- Maintaining an effective corporate risk management strategy.*